

Cousins,

The 2008 JCGS Reunion will take place as scheduled. Arrival of late reservations have given us the minimum number of attendees required to put on the reunion. We (Executive Board) were worried that the present cost of travel would require a canceling of the reunion, however the rough and ready came through to preserve our annual excursion— Thank you.

Our Book III will give a thorough briefing on next years production.

A special note due to the space and time restraints, the executive board meeting will be held to a maximum of two hours. Guests will not be allowed. Our meeting will begin at 6:00 PM and end at 8:00 PM or before on Friday August 1, 2008

Earle W. Clough
President, JCGS

Supplemental Bulletin

The John Clough Genealogical Society 2008 Reunion

Saturday, August 2nd
First Congregational Church
Swanzy, New Hampshire
From 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Beverages and snacks will be available. A main meal is scheduled for 12:30 pm. Please refer to the enclosed registration form for further information.

The First Congregational Church is an historic red brick New England church - 200+ years old – and is located in a village area about six miles from Keene, NH.

Swanzy, NH is where the play, The Old Homestead, by the playwright Denman Thompson (1833-1911) continues to be presented outdoors for a week-end each July in the town's Potash Bowl. The play was very popular when first produced where it played on Broadway then toured this country and Europe. In England, a Command Performance was presented for Queen Victoria. And Swanzy residents have acted in the play since the beginning! Denman Thompson was born in Pennsylvania but grew up in Swanzy. Although his acting and travels took him away he maintained his home in Swanzy.

DIRECTIONS TO THE 2008 REUNION

The First Congregational Church of Swanzy
Route 32, Swanzy, New Hampshire

If you are coming from Vermont or northwest New Hampshire on Route 91, in Brattleboro, VT, take the exit for Route 9 East to Keene, NH.

If you are driving from the north, south, or east, take which-ever convenient highway leads to Keene, NH.

Directions from Keene to the Reunion site

In Keene, at the intersection of Routes 101 and 12, turn south onto Route 12. Go one mile, then turn right onto Route 32. Follow this Route for 3.2 miles.

At the beginning of Route 32, a small airport will be on the right and a short distance further will be Wilson Pond on the left. As you near the church, you will pass a high school on the left and an elementary school on the right. At the intersection just beyond the schools, bear left staying on Route 32. A little further on, the brick church is on the right. Parking is in the church yard. WELCOME
